Welcome Y'all...

After a 32-year absence from the New Orleans Gay Carnival circuit, the Mystic Krewe of Apollo de New Orleans was resurrected and resumed its place among the LGBTQ+ krewes of New Orleans and Apollo krewes across the South in 2018. From its original founding year of 1969 through its subsequent resurrection, Apollo New Orleans has accomplished many “firsts”:

- In its early years, and through today, Apollo is the only New Orleans Gay krewe franchised outside the city. Today, the Apollo franchise thrives forcibly in Baton Rouge, Birmingham, and Lafayette, as well as the now resurrected Mystic Krewe of Apollo de New Orleans. The krewe also through the years had chapters in Dallas, Shreveport, Memphis, and Mobile.
- In 1970, Apollo was the first gay New Orleans Mardi Gras krewe ever to hold its bal masque in a 5-star hotel, the Hotel Monteleone on Royal Street in New Orleans.
- In 1973, Apollo was the first New Orleans gay Mardi Gras krewe to hold its bal masque in the Municipal Auditorium, home to where other legendary New Orleans krewes held their balls.
- In 2018, the Mystic Krewe of Apollo de New Orleans was the first Gay New Orleans Mardi Gras krewe to come back to existence after being silent for 32 years.
- In 2019, the Mystic Krewe of Apollo de New Orleans became the first Apollo chapter to evolve its membership to include all LGBTQ+ people, as well as interested allies, making it a fully inclusive krewe.
- In 2020, the Mystic Krewe of Apollo de New Orleans held its “Resurrection Bal Masque” back at the Hotel Monteleone – acknowledging its royalty, captains and balls from its previous 17-year existence and resuming its traditions with the crowning of King and Queen Apollo New Orleans XVIII.
- Also in 2020, the Mystic Krewe of Apollo de New Orleans became the first Apollo chapter to have a woman serve as an officer (vice president) in more than 50 years of Apollo existence. That new tradition has continued through subsequent elections, with two female allies currently serving on its board of directors.
- In 2022, the Mystic Krewe of Apollo de New Orleans became the first Apollo krewe to have a female member of its royalty.
- Since it was reorganized in 2018, the Mystic Krewe of Apollo de New Orleans has produced one Mr. National Apollo and two Miss National Apollo winners.

Mr. and Miss Apollo 2024 is a program where new ambassadors are selected to represent the Mystic Krewe of Apollo de New Orleans for the 2023-24 year. Those ambassadors will represent Apollo New Orleans in the Mr. and Miss National Apollo competition, as well as local events such as the annual Apollo Rush Party, Gay Easter Parade, New Orleans Gay Pride, Southern Decadence, Queen of Queens Show, and the Krewe’s Announcement Party, to list a few obligations.

By receiving this Contender Packet, you have embarked on the historic journey to be a member of the Apollo New Orleans family, and we encourage you to let us know if we can answer any questions along the way.

Sincerely,

The Krewe Of Apollo de New Orleans

Gia GiaVanni, Miss Apollo New Orleans 2022 (and Miss National Apollo 2022), Pageant Coordinator

MKA-NOLA is limiting contender entry to the first 10 total contestants for either Mr. Apollo New Orleans or Miss Apollo New Orleans. (Only the first 10 contenders to register and pay will be accepted, no matter which title. For example, the first seven for Miss and the first three for Mr., or the first five for Miss and first five for Mr.,...) Secure your spot in either program early!

This is an open contest with no residency requirement. However, Mr. and Miss Apollo New Orleans will be ambassadors for the krewe with frequent public obligations, mostly unpaid, as part of the job description. Reliable transportation is paramount, and you must have the means to make these obligations or else jeopardize the entire prize package. Please do not compete if you cannot honestly commit to a full year of representation locally, as well as the national competition.

Candidate Registration begins July 1, 2023, online at www.mkanola.org and concludes on September 15, 2023. If you cannot complete the registration form online, you may download the form from the site, complete it and email it to thomas.merrill@mkaneworleans.com.

- Registration Fee is $100 per person. Payments may be made via PayPal through the website registration system or by Zelle transfer to apollonolatreasurer@gmail.com (Be sure to indicate Mr. or Miss entry fee.). - Registration and payment must be submitted by midnight on Friday, September 15, 2023.
- Registration is confidential, and contestant names will not be publicly released or announced until the day of competition.
- No registration and no payments will be accepted at check-in on Saturday, September 23, 2023. All registration forms and payment must be received by the September 15, 2023, deadline!
- All payments are final. No refunds. No transfers.
- Payments accepted are cash, debit cards, money order, Zelle, or PayPal. Absolutely no checks accepted. You may contact thomas.merrill@mkaneworleans.com or apollonolatreasurer@gmail.com (or use the phone numbers listed earlier in this packet) to arrange electronic payment, request a PayPal invoice, or make cash payment, if needed.

All contenders must report for pre-contest check-in at 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, September 23, 2023, at OZ New Orleans, 800 Bourbon Street, New Orleans, Louisiana. You must be prompt. All contenders arriving after 4:30 p.m. will receive a deduction of 10 Administrative Points from their final OVERALL score.

Show time starts promptly at 6:00 p.m. All contenders must be in the designated dressing room at 5:55 p.m. SHARP. Failure to do so will result in the deduction of 10 Administrative Points from the contender's final OVERALL score.

During check-in, contenders will sign their contender application (contract) and provide proof of age. The contender information sheet will not be altered during check-in. That information must be finally approved by you at time of submission between July 1, 2023, to midnight on September 15, 2023.

Presentation music and formal wear music will be selected and provided by the contest coordinator and co-chairs for the event. (Similar music will be used for all contestants.). You should plan your own talent music.

We prefer to have your talent music and potential crowning music emailed. Send it to:

Gia GiaVanni – Contest Coordinator	giagiavanni@gmail.com	985-212-2899
------------------------------------	-----------------------	--------------

Your talent music and crowning music are to be emailed between July 1, 2023, and September 15, 2023. After September 15, 2023, you will not be able to submit or change your selections. If you are unable to email your music, then you must contact Gia GiaVanni before the deadline of September 15, 2023, to arrange submission of music on a thumb drive. CDs are not acceptable. No music will be accepted at check-in. All selections must be in by September 15, 2023.

Time for each contestant's piece of music is a maximum of 7 minutes. Tracks longer than 7 minutes will not be accepted.

If you elect to use props for your talent presentation, your overall time for setup, talent presentation, and clearing the stage is 7 minutes, based on rules for the National Apollo contest. Please plan accordingly. Any contestant who exceeds the 7 minute time limit for setup, talent presentation, and clearing the stage will receive a score of 0 (zero) for the talent category.

Contender numbers will be assigned at random by the contest coordinators after the September 15, 2023, deadline for entries.

At the time of check-in and orientation (4:30 p.m., Saturday, September 23), contenders will be allowed to bring in any props, costumes, etc., to be used during the contest. After check-in, a 3-minute sound check on your talent music (not a rehearsal of talent) can be provided. You must organize this request with your Co-Chair or the Contest Coordinator.

A special note about props: Backstage area is extremely limited, so be conscious of size. You are allowed a maximum of 2 minutes to set up and 2 minutes to break down (but remember for props used in the talent category, those minutes count as a portion of your overall 7 minute time limit). You are responsible for the set up and break down of all your props. MKA-NOLA and OZ New Orleans are not responsible for the condition of your props prior to your performance or following your performance. Any concerns about props need to be discussed with Co-Chairs or the Contest Coordinator prior to or at Check-In. After you perform, you are responsible for removing your props immediately from the venue, and props are not permitted in the dressing room at all! This rule will strongly be administered.

Please review the Contest Day Schedule found later in this Contender Information Package.

At check-in, you will confirm and receive one complimentary Back Stage Assistant Pass per contestant.

Backup Dancers are required to pay the $5 door admission and will be allowed back stage no earlier than three (3) numbers before that contender's talent competition. Ask Co-Chairs or Contest Coordinator for clarification.

Rules, Regulations and Requirements

The following Rules, Regulations, and Requirements apply to all contenders vying for the title of Mr. or Miss Apollo New Orleans 2024.

All contenders must be at least 21 years of age on or before September 23, 2023. Proof of legal age may be in the form of any state or federal government issued document (Driver's License, Certified Birth Certificate, Passport, etc.) Proof of legal age is to be presented at the time of contender check-in. It will be photographed for file purposes. If it becomes necessary for the contest committee (the contest coordinator, both co-chairs, and the krewe president) to investigate the age of a contender, reasonable measures will be taken for that investigation, and the contender will be informed if just validation is found for disqualification from the contest under this rule. The decision of the contest committee is final.

MKA-NOLA is an open preliminary to the Mr. and Miss National Apollo Competition. We have no residency requirement. However, you must have dependable transportation and be available to make unpaid public appearances when needed in New Orleans or in Louisiana or Alabama. It is an honor being Ambassadors for MKA-NOLA, and we take this position very seriously... So should the winners! Except in extenuating circumstances (as determined by the Apollo New Orleans board, failure to compete in Mr. and Miss National Apollo will result in forfeiture of the local title and the return of all prizes received to date from Apollo New Orleans (including, but not limited to, prize money, crown/medallion, sash, pin, and any other payments made to or on behalf of the title holder).

No previous winner of the title of Mr. or Miss Apollo New Orleans or Mr. or Miss National Apollo is eligible to participate in the contest for the same title that was previously held. (A former Mr. may compete for Miss, or a former Miss may compete for Mr., however.)

All contenders are eligible. Anyone can enter either category. Our idea is to include the full spectrum of Apollo members, as well as the full GLBTQA+ community and its allies, as potential competitors/representatives. The only requirement is that all contestants for the title of Mr. or Miss National Apollo must portray the gender of the title they are competing for, regardless of their personal gender identity.

All contenders, their assistants, or members of their production team caught in the act of violating any of the laws of the State of Louisiana or the federal government will be immediately disqualified and removed from the premises. This rule applies to contestants and any other member(s) of their entourage. You, as the contender, are responsible for seeing that the members of your team follow these rules.

Any contender whose actions, at any time, are interpreted to be demeaning to the title of Mr. or Miss Apollo de New Orleans will be disqualified and removed from the premises.

Promptness is Required. All contenders must be prepared to take the stage in each contender category, whenever their name or number is called. Failure to do so will result in a score of ZERO (0) for that contender category.

All contenders must be present for check-in/roll call at 4:30 p.m. sharp and for the "readiness check" in the dressing room at 5:55 sharp. Late arrivals will receive a deduction of 10 administrative points from their overall cumulative score for each failure to meet the requirements of this rule.

The completed Contender Application (contract), Contender Information Form (BIO), entry fees, and music must be submitted satisfactorily to the Mr. and Miss Apollo Contest Coordinator/Co-Chairs (or their designees) no later than midnight on Friday, September 15, 2023. Signatures and proof of age are done at check-in at 4:30 p.m. on Saturday, September 23, 2023. Failure to meet these conditions will prohibit a contestant from participating.

The entry fee is $100 per contender. Entrance is limited to the first 10 total entries for both Mr. and Miss Apollo New Orleans. First come, first served. Contact Contest Coordinator or Co-Chairs to arrange for pre-registration if you cannot do online registration. Fees may be made in the form of cash, debit cards, money order, Zelle, or PayPal. There is NO "day of" registration, NO fees collected, and NO music submitted on the day of contest. Registration fees are FINAL, NON-REFUNDABLE, and NON-TRANSFERABLE.

Music for Talent and Potential Crowning Song must be emailed to Gia GiaVanni at giagiavanni@gmail.com between July 1, 2023, and midnight September 15, 2023. This is done so we can organize the music for the DJ. If by chance you cannot email your music, you must submit it on a thumb/jump (USB) drive to Gia GiaVanni in advance of the September 15 deadline. No music will be accepted on CD or DVD. Music will not be accepted the day of the contest. It must be provided in advance!

Contenders are responsible for their own set up and break down of talent props. We DO NOT RECOMMEND use of either large props or backup performers for talent presentation because of space and timing, but they are not prohibited.

Contenders are allowed one back stage assistant to help while dressing, preparation, etc. A complimentary admission pass will be provided. The back stage assistant must always display the pass. The pass may be “handed off” to another person, but only ONE person will be allowed in the contender area as a back stage assistant at any given time. Failure to comply with this rule will result in the deduction of 10 administrative points from the total cumulative score for each infraction of this rule.

Backup performers for talent categories are allowed backstage three (3) slots prior to the beginning of the contender’s talent category. The contender is to have noted on the Contender Application (contract) the appropriate number of backup performer passes for talent. You and your backup performers may move to the stage area immediately prior to your talent performance but should make sure not to interfere with previous contestant exiting the stage.

All props and accessories used during the contest must be removed from the contest venue at the end of the contest. Any items that are left behind will be discarded immediately.

Formal attire (tuxedos and evening gowns) are required for the crowning ceremony. The winner of each title will be provided an opportunity to perform a “crowning song/performance” at the completion of the crowning ceremony. This music is to have been turned in by the September 15, 2023, deadline for music submission.

Tippling of contestants is not allowed during the competition. Audience members will be advised of this rule, and contest staff/coordinators will try to stop any potential perpetrators. Ultimately, however, it is your responsibility: Do not accept any tips during the competition. The acceptance of any gift and/or gratuity by a contender during the competition (prior to the crowning) is absolutely prohibited and will result in a 10 administrative point deduction for each infraction from the contestant’s overall cumulative score.

Only Winners are allowed to receive gratuities during their crowning song performance.

Prizes to be awarded: Prizes to be awarded (in addition to those for individual category winners) include:

- $500 cash prize ($250 night of contest and $250 at conclusion of reign)
 - Crown for Miss Apollo / Medallion for Mr. Apollo
 - Custom-made pin from Dynasty Collection
 - Sash
 - Paid entry fee to Mr. and Miss National Apollo competition in Birmingham, Alabama
 - Honorary membership in the Mystic Krewe of Apollo de New Orleans for one year

JUDGES, CATEGORIES, ETC.

Judges:

A selection of qualified and experienced judges will be assembled for this contest. Judges will award points based on the criteria as outlined in the Contender Categories section. Each judge will decide scores independently from the other judges.

There will be five (5) judges for the evening casting point values per category (Presentation, Evening Gown/Formal Wear, and Talent). After dropping the high and low score in each category, the three remaining judges scores will be added together for a total contender score in each category. Those three category totals will then be added together to derive the total CUMULATIVE score. Any administrative point deductions will be subtracted from this final CUMULATIVE score. (Judges are not made aware of any administrative point deductions.)

All judges are required to provide critique for any point deduction that they may assess. Not more than five (5) points maximum per justification is allowed to be deducted. This will be covered in the Judges Orientation meeting.

Final individual score sheets will be emailed to the address provided on the Contender Information Form that was provided in advance. You should receive your score sheets by the end of the week following the contest. The cumulative tally sheets will be emailed to contestants and/or posted to the MKA New Orleans Facebook page.

This is NOT talent! This is your first introduction to the judges and audience. Make it count!

Because of space considerations, we recommend you make a solo appearance without props and without backup dancers. Back pieces are encouraged as long as they are attached to the costume.
